¹ BVB became a listed company on June 8, 2010.

BVB TRIPLED ITS NET PROFIT AFTER THE FIRST 6 MONTHS²

 The results of the first half of 2011 reflect an increase of the turnover of the most segments operated on Bucharest Stock Exchange (BVB, the Company) upon the listing of new companies and instruments. The improvement of the macroeconomic climate and the listing calendar announced by the Romanian Government attracted more investors on the local capital market. The financial data show an improvement of the financial indicators with the doubling of the average daily number of transactions in 2011 as compared to the average number of transactions traded last year and the recording of dividends from the Central Depository.

 BVB increased its turnover by 28.4% in the first 6 months of 2011 up to RON 10.90 million (H1.2010: RON 8.49 million) as a result of the increase of the revenues from transactions.

 The operating costs amount to RON 6.64 million (H1. 2010: RON 6.20 million), reflecting an increased attention paid to the investor education, the promotion of new instruments and of the overall Romanian capital market and the strict control of the operating and personnel expenses.

 BVB registered a 77.8% increase of the operating result (EBIT) up to RON 4.26 million (H1.2010: RON 2.40 million).

 The net profit increased significantly by 185.6% up to RON 12.50 million (H1.2010: RON 4.38 million).

 Starting from June 1, BVB distributed to its shareholders total dividends amounting to RON 5.39 million as a result of distributing its 2010 net profit. The gross dividend per share amounted to RON 0.7.

Bucharest Stock Exchange (BVB) was established based on the Decision of the National Securities Commission (NSC) no. 20/1995. BVB was established as a public non-profit institution and in 2005 it became a joint stock company. The Company was listed on June 8, 2011. The Company's main activity is the administration of financial markets. BVB is the largest market operator in Romania and it is a medium sized stock exchange in the region.

Bucharest Stock Exchange administrates several markets, among which can be mentioned:

- A spot regulated market on which shares and rights issued by international and Romanian entities are traded; debt instruments: corporate, municipality and state bonds issued by Romanian entities and international corporate bonds; UCITs: shares and fund units; structured products;
- Rasdaq market on which shares and rights issued by Romanian entities are traded;
- A regulated derivatives market on which futures contracts for shares, indices, commodities and exchange rates are traded;
- An alternative trading system, ATS, called CAN (new shares and companies) on which foreign shares listed on another market are traded.

BVB's operating revenues result mainly from the trading of the listed instruments, from listings of companies and instruments, and from data vending to various users.

BVB is included in the FTSE Mondo Visione Exchanges index as of November 9, 2010, in the BET index of as of March 21, 2011, as well as of June 17, 2011 in the Dow Jones Global Exchanges.

ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL RESULTS

These individual financial statements were not drawn up according to the International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS). The financial statements are drawn up according to the Romanian Accounting Standards (RAS) and in compliance with NSC rules. The financial results as of June 30, 2011 are not audited.

Results of operations for the first half of 2011

The first half of 2011 was marked by one of the most anticipated listings, namely that of Fondul Proprietatea (FP). Once the trading of the FP shares was launched on January 25, 2011, the transactions with FP shares resulted in a significant increase of the total market turnover. Fondul Proprietatea marked several events on the market. It was the first share for which global accounts with no pre-validation, the Market Maker institution, stock borrowing and short selling were available. Thus, these mechanisms were tested by the market with no operational errors and BVB requested the National Securities Commission (NSC) to extend the global accounts with no pre-validation to the entire market. BVB management is confident that this mechanism will increase the accessibility of the local market in particular for the foreign institutional investors and in the end this will result in an increased trading volume.

The structured product market launched in June 2010 registered a significant boom during the first 6 months of 2011. The total turnover is almost 3 times higher than the last year figure. The derivatives market showed an important progress in the first half of 2011, the last months being characterized by daily transactions. The new futures contracts introduced (on the Fondul Proprietatea shares or on gold), the Market Makers attracted and the efforts made in order to educate the investors resulted in the rapid development of this sector.

During the first 6 months of 2011 BVB's net turnover increased by 28.4% as compared to the same period of 2010, up to RON 10.90 million (H1.2010: RON 8.49 million), as a result of the increase by 43% of the turnover on the share and fund unit markets (including the DEAL transactions), of the constantly growing turnover on the structured product market, as well as of the 13% increase of the revenues from the listed issuers. BVB's revenues from the trading activity amounted to RON 9.64 million (H1.2010: RON 7.12 million and the listing revenues amounted to a total of RON 0.54 million (H1.2010: RON 0.48 million).

The operating expenses amounted in January-June 2011 to RON 6.64 million (H1. 2010: RON 6.20 million). The 7% increase reflects the initiation by BVB of a number of campaigns aimed at educating and attracting new issuers and investors, which were organized both at the national and international level. The personnel expenses, which represent the highest percentage out of the total expenses, decreased by 6% during the first half of the year and amounted to RON 3.17 million (H1.2010: RON 3.37 million). The functioning expenses were decreased also.

The operating profit (EBIT) of BVB increased by 77.8% up to RON 4.26 million as of June 30 (H1. 2010: RON 2.40 million).

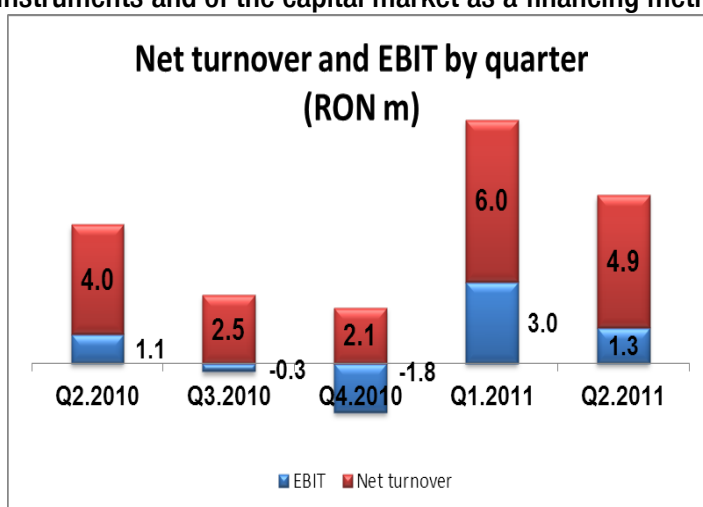

The financial result for the first half of the year amounted to RON 9.14 million (H1.2010: RON 2.84 million) and it was determined by the recording of the dividends from the Central Depository amounting to RON 8.20 million and of the revenues from interest rates.

BVB's net profit increased significantly by 185.6% up to RON 12.50 million (H1.2010: RON 4.38 million).

Results of operations for the second quarter of 2011

After the first quarter of 2011 which showed increasingly better perspectives for the Romanian economy and considering the authorities' announcements regarding Romania's overcoming the recession period, the second quarter focused on the sovereign debt crisis. The uncertainty regarding the solutions to be adopted by the European Union on this matter affected the investors' willingness to take risks. As a result, the main stock exchanges in the region faced a more austere period characterized by a decrease in prices and trading values.

These effects were also felt by Bucharest Stock Exchange which registered slightly lower turnovers than the first quarter of 2011, but higher than those recorded in the second quarter of 2010. Thus, BVB's net turnover in the second quarter of 2011 increased by 21.7% as compared to the same period last year, amounting to RON 4.92 million (Q2.2010: RON 4.04 million). During April-June 2011 the operating expenses amounted to RON 3.66 million (Q2.2010: RON 3.08 million) as a result of larger expenses incurred for the promotion of the traded instruments and of the capital market as a financing method.

During the second quarter, the operating profit increased by 17%, up to RON 1.26 million (Q2.2010: RON 1.07 million) as a consequence of a higher net turnover.

The financial result was RON 9.52 million (Q2.2010: RON 1.21 million), BVB aimed to obtain a financial profit at the end of the first six months. The financial result is due to the dividends amounting to RON 8.20 million from the Central Depository, company in which BVB owns 69.04% of total shares. The financial result was determined also by the interests received from the placement of the existing cash reserves.

BVB reported a net profit of RON 10.30 million in the second quarter, over 5 times higher than that registered in the same period in 2010 (Q2.2010: RON 1.91 million).

Financial position

Cash flow statement

During the first half of the year, BVB generated a positive cash flow from its operational activity of RON 2.49 million, which is similar to the figures registered in 2010 (H1.2010: RON 2.55 million). A positive cash flow was also generated by the investment activity in the amount of RON 2.91 million (H1.2010: - RON 61.42 million). The negative cash flow from the financing activity amounted to a total of 5.39 million (H1.2010: - RON 5.50 million) representing the payment of the dividends from the 2010 net profit.

Net assets

On June 30, 2011 BVB's total assets amounted to RON 99.05 million (June 30, 2010: RON 91.51 million). They consist mainly of non-current assets amounting to RON 25.64 million (June 30, 2010: RON 25.02 million) and current assets amounting to RON 72.82 million (June 30, 2010: RON 91.51 million). BVB's payables on June 30, 2011 include only payables whose due date is under 1 year amounting to RON 3.41 million (June 30, 2010: RON 4.30 million). BVB's cash was reduced to RON 60.97 million (June 30, 2010: RON 64.13 million) on account of the distribution of dividends amounting to RON 5.39 million.

Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR)

BVB embraced the spirit of corporate responsibility as part of its strategy in order to respond to the challenges faced in its field of activity. Education represents a priority of BVB in its corporate responsibility policy, in its desire to familiarize pupils and students with the capital market, as well as in supporting entrepreneurship in youth, the acquiring of basic notions for the initiation of one's own business after completing education or the accessing of any available financing resource. The educational projects are mainly aimed at the development of the next generation of investors and participants in the market.

As far as the educational programs planned for 2011 are concerned, BVB is deeply involved at several levels:

- The organization in partnership with student associations of a number of conferences, seminars, summer schools (Junior Achievement Romania, Asociatia Voluntari pentru Idei si Proiecte Volunteers for Ideas and Projects, Dafl student association)

- The support of educational competition, both at the high school and at the university level (“Capital market”, “VIP Investment School”)
- The organization of internships at BVB during the course of the year, the involvement in and support of a number of professional guidance programs (Job Shadow Day, partnerships with Bucharest University Centers)
- The organization of the program “Ziua portilor deschise la BVB” (Open Doors Day at BVB) together with Junior Achievement Romania and a number of financial investment providers as partners. The program was launched in 2009 and it is mainly dedicated to pupils and students interested in the capital market, stock exchange mechanisms and their role in the financing of economic development
- The involvement of BVB’s employees in the educational process, on voluntary basis, by holding periodic presentations of the capital market mechanisms in the Romanian schools, high schools and universities.

Expectations for the second half of the year 2011

Given the uncertainty regarding the sovereign debt of certain European Union countries, Romania has nevertheless a chance to maintain the positive trend of the main macroeconomic indicators. Thus, Romania could increase its attractiveness to investors, including to portfolio investors. At the same time we are confident that the state will maintain its announced listing schedule and proceed with the development of the two SPOs for Transgaz and Transelectrica. The investors’ appetite for the state offers, be they primary or secondary, and their success will be influenced both by the external context of the moment, the companies’ financial soundness, as well as by the terms of the prospectus.

c) Amortizations and adjustments of the tangible and financial assets

The amortization duration and methods were established according to the provisions of Government Decision no. 2139/2004 approving the Catalogue on the classification and normal operation period of fixed assets and according to the accounting policies adopted by BVB. The amortization is acknowledged in the profit and loss account; the method used being the linear amortization method.

On June 30, 2011 the land adjustment is supplemented by RON 407,608 (January 1, 2011: RON 611,412), the adjustment value being equal to the accounting value of the land (RON 1,019,020).

The financial assets are indicated in the balance sheet at the entry value less the cumulated adjustments for value loss. During the first half of 2011, as the market value was established to have increased as compared to December 31, 2010 for certain shares held by BVB in international institutions, there were record reductions in some adjustments for the value loss through revenues recognition thus increasing their value so that on June 30, 2011 such shares amount to a total value of RON 389,896 (December 31, 2010: RON 412,072), the fair value of the financial assets held being RON 849,040 (December 31, 2010: Ron 831,627). 6. ACCOUNTING POLICIES, PRINCIPLES AND METHODS

6.1. Background information

The statements on the financial report of June 30, 2011 were drawn up according to the general account plan established by the Accounting rules complying with Directive IV of EEC applicable to authorized entities, as regulated and monitored by the National Securities Commission (Directive IV of EEC), as approved by Order of the chairman of the National Securities Commission no. 13/2011, as well as according to the following:

- Accountancy Law no. 82/1991, as republished, as subsequently amended and completed;
- Instruction no. 5/2006 on the half-year accounting report system of the entities regulated and monitored by the National Securities Commission, as subsequently amended and completed;
- Other statutory acts on the financial and accounting activity.

Other lawful regulations specific to the performed activity include:

- Law no. 297/2004 on the capital market;
- Law no. 21/1990 on trade companies, as republished, as subsequently amended and completed;
- Law no. 26/2010 amending and completing Government Emergency Ordinance no. 75/1999 on financial audit activities, republished, as published in the Official Journal of Romania under no. 145/2010.

The statements on the financial report of June 30, 2011 refer to BVB's individual financial reports. The half year financial statements are drawn up based on the trial balance resulted after applying the specifications included in the Accounting rules applicable to entities, as regulated and monitored by the National Securities Commission. These individual financial statements were not drawn up to reflect the Company financial position, operation results and cash flows according to the International Financial Reporting Standards.

6.2. Principles underlying the drawing up of the individual financial statements

The half-year financial reports were drawn up based on the historic costs according to the provisions of Rule no. 4/2011 approved by Order of the NSC Chairman no. 13/2011 on Accounting Rules according to Directive IV of the European Economic Communities applicable to authorized entities, as regulated and monitored by NSC. The presented financial reports are drawn up in compliance with the accounting principles according to accrual-based accounting. Thus, the effects of transaction and of other events are acknowledged upon occurrence, registered in the accounting records and reported in the associated periods. The accounting principles underlying the drawn up financial reports are presented below:

- The going concern principle – implies that the company will continue under normal circumstance its operation in a foreseeable future or significant downsize;
- The consistency of preparation principle – implies the application of the same rules for the transaction evaluation and entry in the accounting records, thus ensuring the possibility to compare in time the financial information;
- The prudence principle – all value adjustments due to any depreciation of the asset value, as well as all foreseeable obligations and potential losses arising during the reporting period or during the closed year or during a previous year are recorded;

- The matching principle– implies that all revenues and expenses associated to the financial year are recorded, irrespective of the date of the collection or payment of such revenues and expenses;
- The separate evaluation of assets and liabilities principle – implies the separate evaluation of the asset and liability items;
- The intangibility principle – the opening balance sheet of each financial year matches the closing balance sheet of the previous financial year;
- The Non-compensation Principle – the value of the asset items is not set off against the value of the liability items, that is the revenues are not set off against expenses, except for the cases in which the setting off of assets against liabilities is permitted by Order of NSC no. 13/2011;
- The economic over legal prevalence principle– the information indicated in the financial statements reflects the economic reality of the events and transactions made and not only their legal status;
- The principle of significance threshold – any item of significant value is separately presented in the financial statements.

6.3. Accounting policies

a. Use of estimations

The drawing up of the financial statements according to the Accounting regulations in compliance with Directive IV of EEC requires the management to make estimations and use premises which affect the reported values of the assets and liabilities, the presentation of the assets, the contingent payables on the date of such financial statements and the expenses reported for the period in case.

b. Going concern

The financial statements are drawn up based on the going concern principle which implies that the company will continue its activity in the foreseeable future.

c. Transaction conversion in foreign currency

The functional currency in which the half yearly statements are presented is RON; the transactions in foreign currency are recorded at the exchange rates valid on the transaction date. Any profits and losses resulted out of the transaction settling and the conversion of the monetary assets and liabilities expressed in foreign currency are acknowledged in the profit and loss account of the year in progress. The balance of the assets and liabilities in foreign currency are converted in RON at the exchange rate communicated by NBR, valid at the end of the report period, as follows:

- 31.12.2010: RON/USD 3.205 and RON/EUR 4.2848;
- 30.06.2011: RON/USD 2.9259 and RON/EUR 4.2341.

d. Tangible assets

Initial acknowledgement and evaluation

Tangible assets are initially acknowledged at the acquisition price which represents the buying price or the value established through the acquisition contract. The asset items are entered in the accounting records at the acquisition cost or at the fair value for other entries than those based on acquisition, if case may be.

Evaluation on the report date

Tangible assets are presented at the acquisition cost less the accumulated amortization and value adjustments. The value subjected to amortization is determined after deducting the residual value; if the residual value is insignificant, it shall not be taken into account for amortization purposes. Tangible assets are depreciated during their estimated useful life cycle from the moment they are commissioned so that their cost should be reduced by the expiration of the life cycle taken into account, as follows: for technical installations and machines 3- 20 years, for other installations, machines and furniture 2 - 15 years. The quotas and useful life cycles of tangible assets were established according to the classification and normal operation cycles of fixed assets approved by Government Decision no. 2139/2004. Plots of land are not subjected to amortization as their life cycle is indefinite.

Subsequent expenses

The expenses for the repair or maintenance of the fixed assets made in order to reestablish or maintain the value of these assets are acknowledged in the profit and loss account on the date they are made, while the expenses incurred in order to improve the technical performance are capitalized and depreciated during the remaining amortization period of the respective fixed asset. The profits and losses generated by the assignment of tangible assets are determined by reporting them to their accounting value and they are taken into account when determining the operating profit. The non-current asset accounting is kept according to categories and to each object on record.

e. Intangible assets

The intangible assets include software and licenses for the use of software.

Initial evaluation

Intangible assets are initially acknowledged at the acquisition price which represents the buying price or the value established through the acquisition contract.

Amortization

Amortization is recorded in the profit and loss account based on the linear method during the estimated duration of the useful life cycle of the intangible asset in case. Intangible assets are depreciated from the date the asset in case is ready for use. The useful life cycle for software and licenses is between 1 and 5 years.

Evaluation on the report date

Intangible assets are acknowledged on the report date at their cost value less the amortization and accumulated value adjustments,

Subsequent expenses

Subsequent expenses for intangible assets are capitalized only when future economic advantages are expected for the asset in case. All other expenses are recorded under the profit and loss account when made.

f. Adjustments for asset loss of value

The accounting value of the company assets is reviewed every time the balance sheet is drawn up in order to determine the existence of any depreciation indicators. In case such depreciation indicators are established, the recoverable value of the company assets is estimated. A depreciation adjustment is recorded in case the accounting value of the asset exceeds the recoverable value of the same. The depreciation adjustment is acknowledged in the profit and loss account. The depreciation adjustment can be brought forward in case of a change of the conditions existing when the recoverable value was established. A depreciation adjustment can be brought forward on condition that the net asset value should not exceed its net historic accounting value, taking into account the amortization and without considering the previous depreciation adjustment.

g. Financial instruments

The financial instruments to be recorded include the following:

- Cash and cash equivalents;
- Financial assets (shares held in subsidiaries and other investments held as financial assets);
- Short term investments, including securities under repurchase agreements;
- Trade receivables and payables;
- Long and short term payables.

Acknowledgement

The company acknowledges the financial assets on the date they were transferred (settlement date). The financial assets are initially evaluated at the acquisition cost. Operations under repurchase agreements involve bank placements, guaranteed by state securities. Securities under repurchase agreement have a fixed due date and are recorded as short term financial investments initially at the acquisition price.

Evaluation

After the initial acknowledgement, the fixed payment financial assets are evaluated using the method based on the daily acknowledgement of the interest rate associated to the period starting from the placement date. Long term securities are evaluated at their historic cost less any possible adjustment for loss of value. Trade receivables are recorded at their estimated realizable value. Uncertain clients are evaluated by analyzing all existing balances at the end of the period. In case bad payer clients are identified, value adjustments are recorded in the year of their identification as such. Upon entering short term investments in the company records, including securities under repurchase agreements, they are evaluated at their acquisition cost plus the accumulated return on the balance sheet date, less any principal and interest received. The depreciation against expenses of the investments held as current assets at the end of the period is reflected in the loss of value adjustments.

Reverse acknowledgement

Financial assets are unacknowledged when the Company loses the control of the contractual rights for the asset in case. The Company loses such control if it executes the rights on the benefits specified in the contract, if the rights in case expire or the company waives the same. Financial debts are unacknowledged when the obligation specified in the contract was fulfilled, canceled or expired. The reverse acknowledgement of sold financial assets is effected on the settlement date or on the date of the property transfer. The profit or loss made on the reverse acknowledgement date is calculated based on the historic cost of the financial asset and it is registered in the profit and loss account. The company uses the weighted average cost method to determine the cost of the financial assets.

h. Cash and cash equivalents

In order to draw up the cash flow statement, the cash and cash equivalents include the existing cash in bank accounts and in the cashier's office. The interest received or paid is classified as cash flow from the investment activity.

i. Supplies

The supplies are estimated at the cost value or the net realizable value, whichever is lower. The supply accountancy is kept only at their value.

j. Provisions for risks and expenses

The provisions for risks and expenses are acknowledged when the company has a legal or implied obligation resulted out of past events, when for the settlement of the obligation it is necessary to exit resources that include economic benefits and when a credible estimation can be made for the value of the obligation in case.

k. Dividends to be distributed

The dividends declared before the balance sheet date are recorded as obligations on such date. The dividends proposed or declared after the balance sheet date are not recorded as obligations, but they are included in the notes to the financial statements.

l. Taxes

In the first half of 2011, the Company paid a 16% profit tax, which was also applicable in 2010. The calculation of the tax profit is based on the accounting result, corrected by any deductible and non-deductible items to which the tax percentages in force on the date the profit tax is calculated are applied.

m. Revenues acknowledgement

The revenues accountancy is kept according to the types of revenues; they are acknowledged according to the principle of accrual-based accounting.

Revenues from current activity

Revenues from current activity include revenues from the commissions charged for the transactions with shares and fixed revenue instruments, the tariffs charged for the entry and maintenance in the transaction system, revenues from the selling of stock exchange information and other revenues. These are acknowledged according to the matching principle, taking into account the period in which the services were provided by the company.

Revenues from dividends

These are acknowledged in the current financial year, after the date of the Decision of the General Assembly of Shareholders of the companies in which equity investments were made regarding the dividend distribution.

Revenues from interest rates, commissions and similar sources

These are acknowledged according to the matching principle, taking into account the interest rate due according to the contract terms during the year in case, to the extent it is certain that such interest rate will be actually received on the due date. Revenues from securities under repurchase agreements are acknowledged based on the return of the placements calculated on the date of their establishment.

n. Expense accounting

The expense accounting is kept according to the types of expenses, their nature or destination. Operating expenses are recorded on the date of their occurrence. The costs incurred for the interest rates associated to possible loans are recorded on the date of their occurrence under the expense account.

7. CONTRIBUTIONS AND FINANCING SOURCES

I. Disputes

On June 30, 2011, Bucharest Stock Exchange was involved in the following disputes:

- The dispute represented by File no, 5940/01/03/2003 of Bucharest Court of appeal – Section I - Criminal Issues, in which BVB is a civil party. In this dispute the courts are to deliver a sentence with reference to the land owned by BVB in Maresal Averescu Blvd., which was acquired in 2000. For the disputed plot of land, the Company established an adjustment for depreciation amounting to RON 1,019,020 (June 30, 2010: RON 611,412)- see note 1;
- In the following disputes BVB intends to recover the receivables due by outstanding debtors for the payment of the obligations associated to the services provided. The gross value of the BVB receivables due by these debtors (issuers, participants, other clients) was fully covered by provisions – see note 5;
- Other disputes in which BVB is involved as the plaintiff but in which no financial resources are expected to be generated in the future (File: 11980/2/2010 whose object is the Partial annulment application of GD no. 831/04.08.2010 on the approval of the privatization strategy by public offer of SNGN Romgaz SA Medias and File no. 25402/3/2008 whose object is the request of a natural person for an analysis of the opportunity of NSC Decision no. 369/2006).

J. RISK MANAGEMENT

Risks associated to the economic environment. Although significant progress has been made lately in the stabilization of the macroeconomic indicators, the international and regional context remains uncertain and can affect the economic and financial environment in which BVB pursues its activity. The materialization of the possible risks associated to the economic environment can result in the reduction of the trading activity on the markets administrated by BVB, and in turn in the reduction of BVB's revenues. The Company management can not foresee all effects of the crisis which will have an impact on the Romanian financial sector or their potential impact on these financial statements. The Company management believes that it has adopted all measures required for the company sustainability and development in the current market conditions.

Liquidity risk. The Company policy on liquidities is to maintain sufficient liquid resources in order to fulfill its obligations as they become due. The liquidity risk can intervene in case the company cannot fulfill its current obligations due to the lack of liquidities. Taking into account the fact that a significant weight of the company assets consists of high level of liquidity placements, liquidity associated risks are low. The Company monitors the evolution of the liquidity level in order to be able to fulfill its obligations on the date they become due. The assets and liabilities are analyzed based on the period remaining up to the contractual due date (note 5, Receivables and payables report).

Credit risk. The credit risk represents an accounting loss which can be acknowledged in case the contracting parties fail to fulfill their obligations. The company is exposed to the credit risk arising out of the possible failure of its contracting partners to fulfill their payment obligations. However, the company management does not foresee significant losses.

Tax associated risks. From January 1, 2007 as a result of Romania's accession to the European Union, the Company had to comply with the EU regulations and consequently it prepared for the application of the changes brought by the European legislation. The Company implemented the changes, but the manner of implementation remains open for fiscal audit for a 5 year period. The text interpretation and the practical implementation of the procedures stipulated by the new tax regulations in force could vary and there is the risk that in certain situations the tax authorities should adopt a different position than that of the Company. Moreover, the Romanian Government has a number of agencies authorized to perform the audit (inspection) of the companies operating on the Romanian territory. These inspections are similar to the tax audits performed in other countries and they can cover not only tax aspects, but also other lawful and statutory aspects of interest to these agencies. It is possible that the Company should be subjected to tax inspections as new tax regulations are issued.

K. EVENTS SUBSEQUENT TO THE BALANCE SHEET DATE

We would like to specify that no other events subsequent to the report date, whose omission might affect the capacity of the users to make evaluations and to take correct decisions, occurred. These reports were not subjected to a financial audit.
