At an official ceremony in Sofia, the CEOs of the Bulgarian and Romanian central securities depositories signed a long expected co-operation agreement. According to the document signed by Mr. Ivan Dimov and Mrs. Adriana Tanasoiu, CEOs of the two depositories, Bulgarian companies can now get listed on the Bucharest Stock Exchange and thus have access to the Romanian capital market.

Mr. Ivan Dimov, CEO of the Bulgarian Central Depository, said about the agreement: "The Romanian Central Securities Depository – is the first foreign depository institution – member of Central Depository AD. The direct link between the two institutions enables dual and cross-listing of financial instruments at very low cost. The link is to facilitate execution of trades on both markets with the option for potential cross-border settlement."

Mrs. Adriana Tanasoiu, CEO of the Romanian Depository, noted: "We are very pleased to partner with Central Depository AD and to provide a robust and comprehensive settlement link to the Bulgarian market. We can say that by this initiative, we created an electronic bridge over the Danube River, offering new solutions for both financial communities."

A group of the stock exchange's officials met a number of businessmen, local investors in Souhag Governorate in addition to representatives of Chambers of Commerce as well as the officials handling the industry development file on Thursday, May 17, 2012. This meeting is one of a series of meetings the stock exchange holds periodically with the Egyptian businessmen to raise their awareness about the benefits of listing on NILEX and the growth opportunities the companies get through the funding. In this regard, the stock exchange's strategy is based on spreading the joint meetings with the investors and businessmen associations in different areas of different investment activities; industrial and agricultural.

The Stock Exchange's management is keen to study its funding opportunities that are offered through its different tools, especially NILEX as a trading platform that allows funding for the small and mid cap enterprises via listing. This attention depends on the need and importance of NILEX to accommodate all companies on the wide geographical range of Egypt, not just focusing on Cairo.

The base value of IMKB IPO Index will be equal to 59,043.16, the closing value of IMKB Stock Market's main indicator IMKB 100 Index as of April 26, 2010. The Index will start to be calculated on real time basis with 46 constituent companies on May 7, 2012. The first and second session closing values for the Index for the period between April 27, 2010-May 4, 2012 has been calculated and will start to be announced on IMKB web site (www.imkb.gov.tr) on May 7, 2012.

On Friday 25 May, TheCityUK is launching a new market advisory group for Turkey. The Turkey Advisory Group will be chaired by Dr Robert Barnes, CEO of UBS MTF and Managing Director, Equities, UBS. The Group has been established to develop and build closer business links between the financial and related professional services sector in the UK and Europe's fastest growing economy. Regionally, Turkey continues to lead as an economic and political powerhouse. During his visit to Turkey in 2010, Prime Minister David Cameron set a goal to double bilateral trade to £18 billion by 2015.

The Group brings together UK expertise in the sector to focus on areas of mutual benefit for the UK and Turkey. It will also work to support the objectives of the UK-Turkey CEO Forum as well as to help the Turkish Government and private sector to develop Istanbul as a financial services centre.

Chris Cummings, CEO of TheCityUK, commented: "I am delighted we are launching our Turkey Advisory Group to promote and develop strong links between the UK's financial and related professional services and Turkey's private sector. In addition, we welcome the opportunity to liaise with the Turkish authorities on their ambitious plans to establish Istanbul as a regional finance centre. British and Turkish companies working together will form a formidable tool to assist the Turkish Government to deliver this project."

Robert Barnes, the Group Chair, said: "Turkey is an important market for members of TheCityUK. There are significant opportunities for companies active in the UK and London's international financial centre to partner with the Turkish private sector to grow their existing business and develop new enterprise in Turkey and the wider region."

Trade and Investment Minister, Lord Green said: "I warmly welcome the foundation of the new Turkey Market Advisory Group which will help us to identify where we can work more closely with Turkey on financial services and how we can share our expertise to assist Turkey in its ambition to make Istanbul a regional financial centre. I wish TheCityUK every success with their initiative."

TheCityUK already runs a number of market advisory groups which work to develop closer business links between the financial and professional services sector in the UK and growing economies such as Brazil, Russia, India and China. Similarly, it is developing a network of international financial centres, providing access to wider geographic areas through agreements with cities such as Dubai, Moscow and Toronto.
