

Photos:

The Financial Secretary, Mr Paul Chan, delivers the opening speech for Hong Kong FinTech Week 2020 on November 2.

The Chief Executive of the Hong Kong Monetary Authority (HKMA), Mr Eddie Yue, announced on November 2 during Hong Kong FinTech Week 2020 that the HKMA is exploring a new data strategy and considering building a new form of financial infrastructure called the Commercial Data Interchange.

The Secretary for Financial Services and the Treasury, Mr Christopher Hui (centre), on November 2 revealed two new initiatives during his fireside chat in Hong Kong FinTech Week 2020 with Co-CEO of Ping An Group Ms Jessica Tan (right) and Founder and CEO of Finnovasia Mr Anthony Sar (left).

The Chief Executive Officer of the Securities and Futures Commission, Mr Ashley Alder, on November 3 during Hong Kong FinTech Week 2020 unveiled a new licensing regime and framework to regulate all virtual asset trading platforms.

The Chief Executive of Hong Kong Exchanges and Clearing, Mr Charles Li (left), and Steward of Sequoia Capital and Founding and Managing Partner of Sequoia Capital China Mr Neil Shen (right) shared their views on fintech on November 4 during Hong Kong FinTech Week 2020.

Heavyweight speakers such as investment expert and author Mr Jim Rogers (right) spoke during Hong Kong FinTech Week 2020 (November 2 to 6). Mr Rogers spoke with Founder and Managing Director of Active Creation Capital Mr Daniel Tu (left).

Heavyweight speakers such as the President of Tencent, Mr Martin Lau (right), and Founder of DST Global Mr Yuri Milner (left) spoke in a video pre-recorded in October for Hong Kong FinTech Week 2020 (November 2 to 6).

Heavyweight speakers such as Founder, Co-chairman and co-Chief Investment Officer of Bridgewater Associates Mr Ray Dalio (right) spoke in Hong Kong FinTech Week 2020 (November 2 to 6). Mr Dalio spoke with TV anchor of Bloomberg Mr David Ingles (left).