The CSRC Initiated the Compulsory Process to Delist Xintai Electric

The CSRC on 8 July initiated the compulsory process to delist Dandong Xintai Electric, an electric equipment manufacturer, for fraudulent financial information in its application for an initial public offering in 2014. The delisting could also mean a permanent exit from the stock market for the company as there is no legal arrangement for relisting companies that have been delisted from the ChiNext Market. The company has become first listed firm in the Chinese mainland to be delisted from the exchange for IPO fraud since the securities regulator unveiled stricter delisting rules in 2014 in an effort to restore investors' confidence and eliminate errant companies. Xintai Electric and 17 of its senior executives will be fined and two personnel held responsible will be permanently banned from the market. Industrial Securities, the sponsor of Dandong Xintai, was ordered to pay RMB 550 million (USD 82.2 million) to compensate investors' losses, in addition to a RMB 57.3 million (USD 8.6 million) fine.

The Memo, implemented from 1 July, 2016, sets forth the circumstance, method and information disclosure of media conferences required when a listed company reveals a scheme for major assets restructuring, in order to enhance honesty ethics and information disclosure of the market. ### The CSRC Planned to Bar IPOs of Companies in Breach of Environmental Protection Laws

The CSRC announced at a press conference on 30 June that it will bar firms penalized for violating environmental protection laws from going public as the country puts more emphasis on the ecological responsibilities of companies. The CSRC has mandated that firms subject to environmental-related administrative or criminal penalties in the last three years will be barred from launching an initial public offering of shares. In addition, the CSRC will continue to push forward with the pilot issuing of green bonds, while exchanges and institutions that compile indexes will work together to issue green bond indexes.
